ABOUT

The Association of California Cities–Orange County (ACC-OC) represents the interests of Orange County cities on regional public policy issues. The Association believes in education that empowers, policy development that is collaborative, and advocacy that is service orientated. The ACC-OC membership base consists of the cities of Orange County, dozens of local government special districts, businesses, non-profits, and higher education institutions. The Association is governed by a board of Directors and operates as a 501c3.

The organization was established in 2011 under the philosophy that Orange County cities need to have a collaborative voice on public policy issues impacting the community.
